

El Paso International School of Faith

Pastoral Qualifications Survey

The purpose of this inquiry is to examine the attitudes of local church goers in the El Paso, Texas region. This survey will focus on the personal ideology and Biblical knowledge that church goers have on what makes a person qualified to be a Pastor of a church.

Please indicate your role associated with your Church

Please indicate your response with a True, False or Unsure

Biblical Knowledge

1. The Bible provides clear list of requirements (qualifications) for a person to be considered for Pastors.
2. The Bible indicates that a divorce person becomes disqualified for consideration as Pastor.
3. The Bible strictly indicates that the position of Pastor is designated to men only.
4. The Bible provides clear, distinct responsibilities between Pastors, Deacons, and/or Elders.
5. The Bible provides instructions for leadership of women that is different from men.
6. The Bible indicates that a person needs to be ordained in order to become a Pastor.
7. The autonomous church may establishes its own requirements for their Pastoral position.
8. The autonomous church relies heavily on traditional qualifications to determine Pastoral positions.
9. Pastoral qualifications change as generations change (Builders, Boomers, X, Y, Z, & Milli, etc.).
10. Pastoral candidates should be educated and experienced as part of the vetting process to be a Pastor.

Personal Ideology

11. The qualifications for the position of Pastor is the responsibility of Pastor search committee.
12. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to be a seminary graduate.
13. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to be ordained.
14. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to be experienced in Pastoral duties.
15. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, can not be divorced and/or remarried
16. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs a wife who will be active in the church.
17. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to have strong leadership skill.
18. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to be well liked in the community.
19. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to be knowledgeable with conflict resolution practices.
20. A candidate for a Pastor's position in the church, needs to be able to preach with dynamics.

Additional data needed for a needed for accurate results.

Please select a age range

Please select a gender

Please select a spiritual state

EPISF would like to say THANK YOU for participating with this survey. Please select button below to send the results to our school. Again, THANK YOU.